restraining the Respondent/Defendant, their partners, proprietors, directors, servants, agents, representatives, assigns or any person acting through or under them from publishing, communicating or disseminating to any person any false statement asserting any right, title or interest of the Respondent/Defendant in or denying or disputing the Applicant/Plaintiff's right to produce, release or commercially exploit the said Film or otherwise disparaging the Applicant/Plaintiff's rights, title or interest therein pending disposal of the above suit".

4. The applicant is the producer, who is having the copyright for the film "BROO CLUB". The film was originally produced under the name "BRO CODE". There was a commercial dispute in CS (Comm) No. 1104 of 2025 instituted by one Indospirit Beverages Private Limited in relation to the title "BRO CODE" and in the said suit, a settlement was arrived at between the parties and thereafter, the applicant has entered into an agreement with the Director and Distributor of the film "BROO CLUB".

5. In the meantime, the respondent/defendant falsely asserted that they have rights over the film 'BROO CLUB' stating that the film is already registered with Qube in the name of Miracle Movies. There was exchange of notices.

6. Learned counsel on record, present physically, handed over a copy of the letter of Tamil Film Producers' Council and the said communication confirms that the film has been registered in the name of the applicant/plaintiff.

7. In the light of the above, I find that the applicant/plaintiff has made out a prima facie case for grant of an order of interim injunction. If the infringement of proprietary rights is allowed to be proceeded with, as apprehended by the applicant/plaintiff, the applicant/plaintiff will be put to irreparable hardship and the balance of convenience is also in favour of granting an interim injunction.

8. Hence, there shall be an order of interim injunction in O.A. Nos. 1086 & 1087 of 2026. Notice to the respondent through Court as well as privately returnable by 03.11.2026.

9. The applicant/plaintiff shall comply with the provisions of Order XXXIX Rule 3(a) CPC and file an affidavit in Court regarding compliance.
