JUDGMENT

The appellant assails an order dated 25.09.2017 by which the request for grant of patent was declined. By the impugned order, the respondent concluded that the amended claims 1 to 9 do not involve an inventive step as required by Section 2(1)(ja) of the Patents Act, 1970 (the Patents Act).

2. At the hearing on 25.07.2023, learned counsel for the appellant dealt with the cited prior art and contended that the claimed invention satisfies all the requirements of Section 2(1)(j) and that the claimed invention would not be obvious to a person skilled in the art on the basis of the cited prior arts. With specific reference to the cited prior art documents, learned counsel pointed out that the cited prior arts are either not relevant or, at any rate, do not contain any teaching that lead to the claimed invention.

3. Upon obtaining instructions, Mr.Subbu Ranga Bharathi, learned Central Government Standing Counsel, submits that the matter may be remanded for re-consideration. The said submission is made without making any concession on the merits of the matter.

4. Learned counsel for the appellant is agreeable to this course of action subject to two caveats:

(i) Such re-consideration should be confined to the grounds on which the patent application was refused and the prior arts cited therein.

(ii) Such re-consideration should be by a different officer.

5. On instructions, Mr.Subbu Ranga Bharathi is agreeable to the first requirement of learned counsel for the appellant. As regards the second, I am of the view that it is appropriate that a different officer considers the matter on remand so as to preclude confirmation bias.

6. In view of the above development, it is unnecessary to adjudicate the appeal on merits. Instead, the impugned order is set aside on the ground of non-consideration of contentions raised by the appellant with regard to the cited prior art.

7. Consequently, (T)CMA(PT) No.8 of 2023 is disposed of without any order as to costs, without expressing any opinion on the merits and the matter is remanded for re-consideration on the following conditions:

(i) Re-consideration shall be confined to the grounds on which the application was rejected by impugned order dated 25.09.2017 and the prior art cited therein.

(ii) An officer other than the officer who passed the impugned order shall undertake such re-consideration.

(iii) After providing a reasonable opportunity to the appellant, a reasoned decision should be issued within a maximum period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
